Train + Bus

For timetables visit www.nationalrail.co.uk

There are fast trains from London King's Cross Station to Cambridge every half hour, taking about 50 minutes. Direct trains are available to Cambridge from Norwich, Ipswich, Kings Lynn, Peterborough, Birmingham, London Liverpool Street and Stansted Airport.

From the Railway station you can walk to Brooklands Avenue and take the Uni4 to Trumpington Street. The bus runs every 20 minutes and the whole journey will take approximately 15 minutes.

Train + Cycle

If you're travelling by train, you could bring your bike with you and cycle from the station. Cycling from the station will take around 10 minutes. Restrictions apply if you are travelling at certain times. Find out more online at www.abelliogreateranglia.co.uk/travel-information/your-journey/cycling/bikes-on-trains

Cycle hire facilities are also available at the station.

Catch the Bus

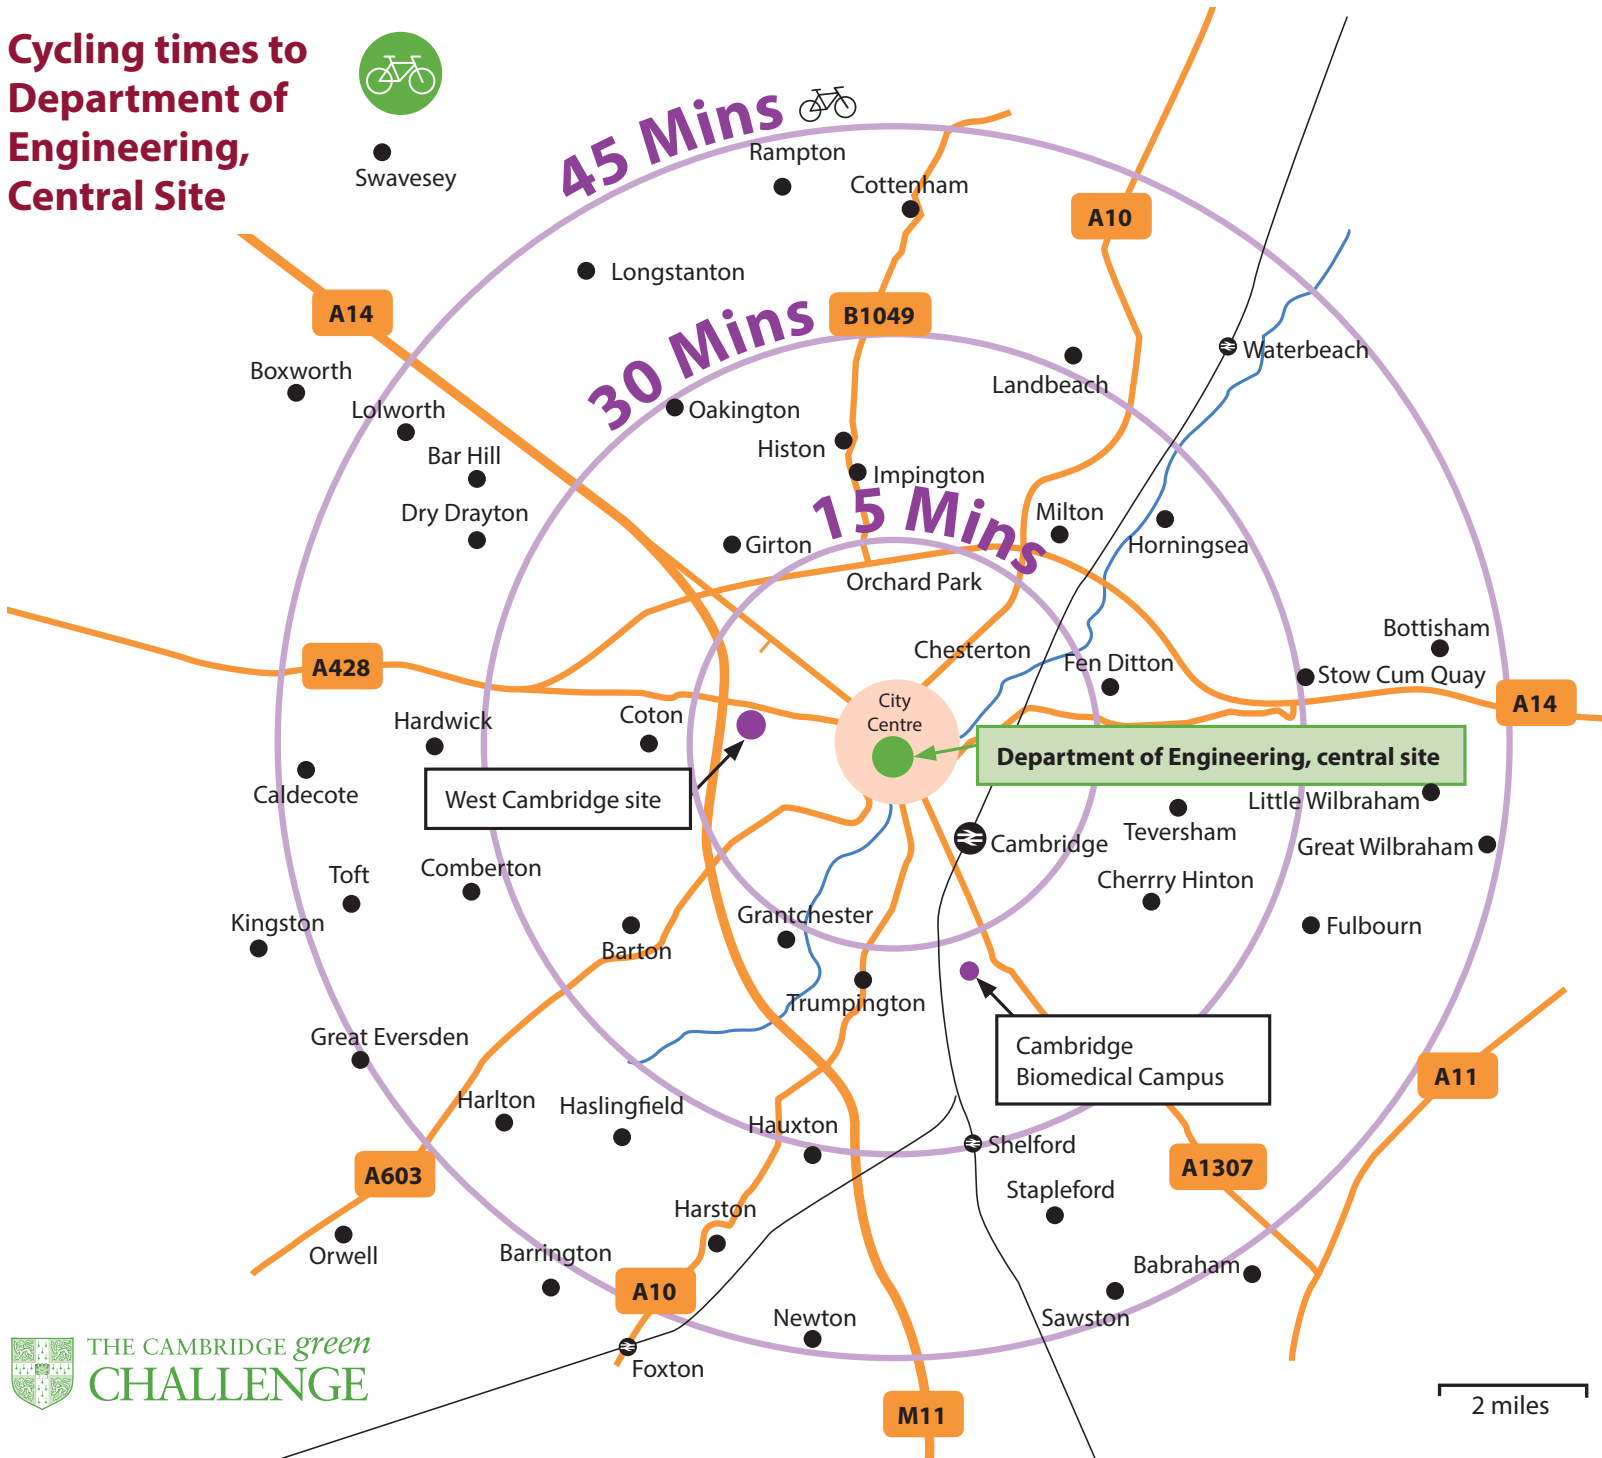

The Uni 4 bus can be used to get to the Department from the Cambridge Biomedical Campus and West Cambridge site. The Citi 1, 3 and 7 buses can be used to get to the department from the train station. Plan your bus journey by visiting www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/info/20017/buses

Or download the MyBusTrip app to find out when your next bus will arrive.

Cycling times to Department of Engineering, Central Site

Cycle

In Cambridge it's quicker to make many journeys by cycling than by car.

The map shows typical cycling time to get to the Department of Engineering, based on someone cycling at a moderate speed of 10km per hour.

This shows you can easily get to the train station and the West Cambridge site in less than 15 minutes by bike.

Car share!

Even if you're making a one off your journey to Department of Engineering, Central Site, you might find someone who could offer you a lift to get there on the car sharing website. It's quick and easy to register a journey.

How can you start car sharing?

1. Register online at www.liftshare.com.
2. Register your journey to work.
3. Look for someone who makes the same route.
4. Get in touch with them to organise a match!

Car Parking

Six visitor parking spaces are available, and can be booked via the Engineering Intranet by your departmental contact. Alternatively you can contact Reception on 01223 332600

University of Cambridge Travel Plan

The University of Cambridge Travel Plan aims to reduce the number of car trips travelling to University sites and encourage trips to the University to be made sustainably. To find out more visit:
